On the proposed Amendment to the Constitution of this State

First Monday of October A.D. 1874.

“The House of Representatives shall consist of electors residing in towns from which they are elected. Every town which now contains, or hereafter shall contain a population of five thousand, shall be entitled to send two representatives, and every other one shall be entitled to its present representation in the general assembly. The population of each town shall be determined by the enumeration made under the authority of the census of the United States, next before the election of representatives is held.”

On the proposed Amendments to the Constitution of this State

First Monday of October A.D. 1875.

Number 1.

Section 1. A general election for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, comptroller, and members of the general assembly, shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and annually thereafter for such offices as are herein, and may be by law prescribed.

Sec. 2. The state officers above named, and the senators from those districts having even numbers, elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected biennially thereafter on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, shall respectively hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January. The senators from those districts having odd numbers, elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, shall hold their offices for one year from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of January, 1877; the electors residing in the senatorial districts having odd numbers shall, on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1877, and biennially thereafter, elect senators who shall hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January. The representatives elected from the several towns on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected annually thereafter, shall hold their offices for one year from and after Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January.

Sec. 3. There shall be a stated session of the general assembly in Hartford, on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877, and annually thereafter on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January.

Sec. 4. The persons who shall be severally elected to the state offices and general assembly on the first Monday of April, 1876, shall hold such offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877.

Sec. 5. The general assembly, elected in April, 1876, shall have power to pass such laws as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this amendment.

Number 2.

The general assembly shall have power, by a vote of two thirds of the members of both branches, to restore the privileges of an elector to those who may have forfeited the same by a conviction of crime.

Legal form of Ballot.
