This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page from a ledger or account book. The page is ruled with ten vertical red lines, creating eleven columns of varying widths. The lines are slightly irregular, and the paper shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration. The binding edge on the left is visible, showing the stitching and the adjacent page.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page from a book. The page features vertical ruling lines in a light brown or tan color. The paper has a slightly textured appearance and shows signs of wear, including a small tear at the top left corner and some discoloration along the edges. The binding edge of the book is visible on the left side. The page is set against a dark, textured background, likely the inner cover or another page of the book.

This image shows a single sheet of white, lined notebook paper. It features horizontal blue or grey ruling lines spaced evenly down the page. A single vertical red or dark blue margin line runs parallel to the left edge, creating a narrow left margin. The paper appears slightly aged or off-white. There are no markings, text, or drawings on the surface.

1. The first part of the paper is a list of the names of the persons who have been elected to the office of the President of the United States. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and the year of their election is given in parentheses.
